1 Scope

Number the existing note as Note 1.

Add a second note as follows:

NOTE 2 There are regional standards regarding the regulation of EMC requirements for end-products like luminaires and independent control gear. In a luminaire, the control gear is dominant in this respect. Control gear, together with other components, should comply with these standards.

1.1 Normative references

Delete from the existing list the following standard:

IEC 61547:1995, Equipment for general lighting purposes – EMC immunity requirements
