Foreword

During the CENELEC TC 74 meeting held in November 1996 the classification and labelling of lasers within equipment was discussed.

It was agreed that the current references to IEC 60825 in EN 60950:1992 were no longer appropriate and, therefore, an amendment to update EN 60950 was submitted to the formal vote and was approved by CENELEC as amendment A11 to EN 60950:1992 on 1997-07-01.

This amendment was prepared by the Technical Committee CENELEC TC 74, Safety and energy efficiency of information technology equipment.

The following dates were fixed:

- latest date by which the amendment has to be implemented at national level by publication of an identical national standard or by endorsement (dop) 1998-02-01
- latest date by which the national standards conflicting with the amendment have to be withdrawn (dow) 1998-08-01

For products which have complied with EN 60950:1992 and its amendments A1:1993 + A2:1993 + A3:1995 + A4:1997 before 1998-08-01, as shown by the manufacturer or by a certification body, this previous standard may continue to apply for production until 2003-08-01.

4.3.12 Amend the third compliance paragraph as follows:

For equipment using LEDs or lasers, compliance is checked according to EN 60825-1.

Add a note:

NOTE: If equipment falling within the scope of EN 60950 is inherently a class 1 laser product i.e. it contains no embedded laser or LED of a higher class number, then a laser warning label or other laser warning statement is not required (see 1.1 of EN 60825-1).

Annex ZA Amend the entry for IEC 60825 as follows:
